INTRODUCING THE ART OF RAISING FREQUENCY...

Building on a background in Shiatsu, Reiki and Crystal Resonance Therapy, artist and author, Barbara Evans has developed a new and exciting energy healing modality, Art of Raising Frequency™, which creates an energetic synergy of high vibrational art, crystals and sacred sound. This modality is fast becoming recognized as a beneficial and powerful approach for RESETTING and UPGRADING the Human Biofield, which is a vital precursor to achieving and maintaining Inner Peace, Harmony and Vibrant Health.

Barbara has developed a training program aimed to teach those interested in energy healing about this new modality. Now, for the first time, the major elements are being offered as a single day intensive. During the day, you will learn how The Art of Raising Frequency* can...

- Raise Frequency and Consciousness, taking you to new levels of Awareness and Insight, and offering new layers to the Practitioner's Healing Potential
- Nurture the power of self healing, becoming a key component of our self-care tool box
- Provide fundamental energetic support, complementing any existing healing modality, and be simply and effectively integrated into all current holistic wellness protocols

Barbara is an intuitive and creative healer, passionate about bringing the benefits of Art of Raising Frequency to all of mankind. She has a specific desire to bring new approaches to Practitioners that enhance personal growth and self-care, while bringing a new dimension to their healing capabilities.
